

Science fair students 'full of curiosity and enthusiasm'

By AMANDA FRIES Observer-Dispatch Posted Mar 31, 2012 @ 02:23 PM

UTICA — The Children's Museum 9th Annual Science & Technology Fair

Copyright 2012 The Observer-Dispatch, Utica, New York. Some rights reserved

WINNERS OF SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY FAIR

INTERMEDIATE LEVEL – (2nd and 3rd grade)

1st place: Samuel Butcher, 2nd grade, Clinton Elementary - How Electronic Gadgets Work: LED & Diodes

2nd place: Robert Tarolch, 2nd grade, Bradley Elementary - How Temperature Affects Crystal Growth

JUNIOR LEVEL – (4-6 grades)

1st place: John Yin, 4th grade, Bradley Elementary - Light Effect on Plant Growth

2nd place: Faith Farrar, Kaitlyn Davis, Jessica Buckingham, 6th grade, Staley Elementary - Salt Water Effect on Plants

3rd place: Nicole Jeselson, 6th grade, Rome Catholic School - Guinea Pigs Eat Balanced Diet?

SENIOR LEVEL – (7th and 8th grades)

1st place: Julianna Morgun, 7th grade, JFK Middle School - Where the Most Bacteria in JFK is Located;

2nd place: Matthew Muller, 7th grade, Adirondack Middle School, Forestport- Life Science Avian Diversity;

3rd place: Diana Bykovich, 7th grade, JFK Middle Middle School - The Effects of Electric Static on Hair;

Honorable Mention: Andrel Nawoj & Ben Mackie, 7th grade, Clinton Middle School– Hamster Power.

Honorable Mention: Senad Libic, 7th grade, JFK Middle School - Biology, The Stroop;

Honorable Mention: Muhammad Ashraf & Alvin Munjakovic, 7th grade, JFK Middle School- Soda goes Nuclear;

Overall Grand Prize Winner: Davey Jeselson, 8th grade, Rome Catholic School, Rome - Math Vs Reality.