

The Children's Museum Proudly Presents

WHAT: Press Conference Ceremony Unveiling Two New NASA exhibits

WHERE: The Children's Museum, 311 Main Street, Utica, NY 13321

WHEN: Friday, June 10th, 2005

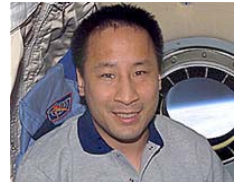

TIME: 10:30am to 12:30pm

Children's Museum
museum4kids.net

WHO: Congressman Sherwood Boehlert, Astronaut Edward Lu (Ph.D.); David Defelice (Glenn Research Center); James Stofan (NASA Headquarters); Ron Ernst (Goddard Education Center); Debbie Sharp (Johnson Space Center); NYS Senator Ray Meier; County Executive Joe Griffo; Utica Mayor Tim Julian; Rome Mayor Jim Brown; Proctor High School Principal Richard Ambruso; Marlene B. Brown (Museum Executive Director); invited Guests, Dignitaries, Press & Media; Museum Board of Directors, Staff.

PROGRAM:

- 10:30am Welcome by Museum Executive Director Marlene B. Brown
- Color Guard Presentation/Pledge by ROTC from Proctor High Academy A
- Opening with "My Country 'Tis of Thee" by Albany Elem. School 2nd graders
- Introduction of Congressman Sherwood Boehlert by Director Brown
- Introduction of Astronaut Ed Lu by Boehlert, Chairman - House Science Comm.
- Brief presentations by select NASA Officials (see list above)
- Brief presentations by select Elected Officials (see list above)
- Brief presentation by Ambruso on new Proctor/CM collaboration
- Closing "God Bless America" led by Constableville & Sharon Springs 1st graders
- 11:00am Viewing of new 4th floor NASA Exhibit "Why We Explore"
- 11:10am Private Tour outside of NASA's interactive "Space Station Imagination" (school groups in attendance tour trailer exhibit from 11:20am to 12:00p)
- 11:30am Educational NASA Workshop for visitors/groups on 2nd floor stage area
- 11:30am Private Reception/Press Conference for invited guests/media on 1st fl

The Children are our Future –
Follow NASA as they explore
Earth, Moon, Mars and Beyond

The Children's Museum has been adopted by NASA & DOE's OS

